ATHLETICS PROGRAM
FOOTBALL | Coach Jason Brown
Jason Brown’s distinguished professional football career began in the hometown of Compton. At a 1994 alumni of Compton College, Brown began his coaching career in 2000 as an assistant at Cal State Fullerton. In 2008, Brown was named the head coach at the University of Portland, the youngest and most successful football coach in Portland history. Brown’s track record includes a career record of 53 wins, seven losses, and four ties, and he has been named the head coach at the University of Portland since 2008. During his time at Portland, Brown’s teams have qualified for the NCAA Division II playoffs in each of the past five seasons, making him the first African-American coach to reach the NCAA Division II playoffs four consecutive years.
