El Camino College Compton Center Hosts “Cash for College” Days

If you are planning to attend El Camino College Compton Center, but wondering how to pay for your education, a solution to your dilemma may be available at one of the “Cash for College” fairs. On Saturday, January 17 and Saturday, February 14, Compton Center will host “Cash for College” fairs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The events include a presentation on financial aid and scholarships. Information will be provided for non-resident students (AB 540) and for students who have not passed the CAHSEE. There will be online computer assistance and expert guidance with the Federal Financial Aid Application (FAFSA). Presentations will be made in English and Spanish.

Students who attend a “Cash for College” day need to bring with them their social security number or permanent resident card number, a parent’s social security number - if applicable; the most recent federal income tax return or W-2 forms; and public assistance aid information (TANF, SSI, Unemployment and/or General Relief) to the. Students are asked to have their parents attend with them.

For information about the program, contact Giselle Gamino, financial aid outreach coordinator at 310-900-1600, ext. 2925 or via email at ggamino@elcamino.edu.

El Camino College Compton Center is accredited and serving the educational needs of our community. Students are able to earn an associate degree, transfer to a four-year university or receive career training. Fees are only $20 per unit. The college catalog, class schedule, evenings and weekend college offerings are available in-person or on-line at www.compton.edu. Compton Center is located at 1111 E. Artesia Boulevard, Compton, CA; 310-900-1600.
