El Camino College Compton Center Hosts “Cash for College” Day

If you plan to attend El Camino College Compton Center, but haven't figured out a way to pay for your education, you may find your answer at an upcoming “Cash for College” fair. On Saturday, February 14, Compton Center will host a “Cash for College” Fair from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The event includes an in-depth presentation on financial aid and scholarships. Information will be provided for non-resident students (AB 540) and for students who have not passed the CAHSEE. There will be online computer assistance and expert guidance with the Federal Financial Aid Application (FAFSA) to meet the March 2 deadline. Presentations will be made in English and Spanish.

Students who attend a “Cash for College” day need to bring with them their social security number or permanent resident card number, a parent's social security number, if applicable; the most recent federal income tax return or W-2 forms; and public assistance aid information (TANF, SSI, Unemployment and/or General Relief) to the. Students are asked to have their parents attend with them.

For information about the program, contact Giselle Gamino, financial aid outreach coordinator at 310-900-1600, ext. 2925 or via email at ggamino@elcamino.edu.

El Camino College Compton Center is accredited and serving the educational needs of our community. Students are able to earn an associate degree, transfer to a four-year university or receive career training. Fees are only $20 per unit. The college catalog, class schedule, evenings and weekend college offerings are available in-person or online at www.compton.edu. Compton Center is located at 1111 E. Artesia Boulevard, Compton, CA; 310-900-1600.
