Family Conference & Cultural Diversity Celebration

El Camino College Compton Center will be the site for the Compton Unified School District's Annual Family Conference & Cultural Diversity Celebration set for Saturday, May 19, 2007. The event runs from 8 a.m. through 2:30 p.m. on the Compton Center campus.

The Family Conference and Cultural Diversity Celebration is a collaborative effort between the Compton Unified School District and area post-secondary institutions, community organizations, and businesses. All Compton Unified School District families are invited to attend this event.

Conference participants will gain valuable information and materials to help better understand the necessary steps toward choosing a career path, getting a job, and attending college after high school. Families will attend workshops designed explain the requirements, processes, and options for their children when considering life after high school.

A focus of the conference will include the importance of completing high school and building a college-bound goal for their children, as well as the financial resources available through federal and state aid and scholarships.

Refreshments will be available from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. Childcare will be provided from 9:30 to 11:45 a.m.
