Compton Community College District Welcomes New Chief Business Officer

The Compton Community College District (CCCD) welcomes Daniel Villanueva as the new Chief Business Officer (CBO) for the District. The CBO serves as the chief financial advisor to the CEO and has oversight responsibilities for all financial aspects of the District including administration of fiscal and business affairs, long-range financial and operational planning, and budget development.

Villanueva previously served as the assistant director of Business Advisory Services for the Los Angeles County Office of Education for over 10 years. In addition, he was an instructor for the Frontline Leadership and Management Program and the Academy for Business Career Development, both offered by the Los Angeles County Office of Education. From 2000 to 2005, Villanueva served on the board of the Ability First Housing Corporation and was a founding board member for Kids In Camping from 1995-2002. He received his MBA from the University of La Verne and a bachelor's degree in management and administration from the University of Redlands. Villanueva officially joined the District as Chief Business Officer on December 6.

About the Compton Community College District

The Compton Community College District serves the communities of Carson, Compton, Enterprise, North Long Beach, Lynwood, Paramount and Willowbrook. The District is governed by a state-appointed Special Trustee, who works with the five-member elected Board of Trustees. Board meetings are held the second Tuesday of each month and are open to the public. The District is located at 1111 E. Artesia Boulevard, Compton, CA, 90221.
