Compton Community College District Special Trustee Appoints New Member to Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee

Irene Shandell has been appointed by Compton Community College District (CCCD) Special Trustee Thomas Henry to serve on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee as a community-at-large representative. Shandell will serve a two-year term.

As outlined in Education Code Section 15278, the role of the District's Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee is to "inform the public concerning the District's expenditure of revenues received from the sale of bonds authorized by the voters." Members are appointed for either a one- or two-year term, with a two-term maximum, and they do not receive any compensation or benefits for their service.

Shandell is retired from the Internal Revenue Service where she supervised revenue officers. Her responsibilities involved administering, supervising, and performing work related to collecting delinquent taxes, surveying for unreported taxes, and securing delinquent returns. She received a bachelor's degree in general education from California State University, Dominguez Hills, with a minor in public administration.

She joins the current seven committee members:

Martha Brown, (Chair) Community Representative
Larry Edmonds, Senior Citizens Organization Representative
L.C. Green, Jr., Taxpayer Representative
Jasmine Haynes, Student Representative
Arturo Ramos, Community Representative
Kenelle Smalley, Business Representative
Anthony Yanes, Community Representative

More information may be found on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee page on the District website: www.district.compton.edu.
