Compton Community College District Conducts Annual Organizational Meeting

The Compton Community College District (CCCD) Board of Trustees held its annual organizational meeting on December 12, 2017, and elected officers for 2018. Nicole Jones was elected president, Sonia Lopez was elected vice president; and LoWanda Green will serve as clerk. CCCD CEO Keith Curry was elected to serve as secretary to the Board of Trustees until December 2018.

Additionally, CCCD Board of Trustees Vice President Sonia Lopez was appointed to serve as the District's representative to the Los Angeles County School Trustees Association, and Board Member LoWanda Green will serve as the representative on the Los Angeles County Committee on School District Organization. Board Member Deborah LeBlanc was appointed to review nominations for membership on the California Community College Trustees Board and make a recommendation to the CCCD Board of Trustees.

The Board of Trustees carries out its responsibilities on behalf of the citizens of the Compton Community College District. According to Board Policy 2200, the CCCD Board members responsibilities include advocating for and protecting the District; assisting in the establishment of a climate in which high standards are maintained and institutional goals are accomplished; conducting themselves in legal, ethical, and prudent ways; and respecting the authority of District's chief executive officer to manage the day-to-day affairs of the District by providing the CEO with guidance and direction only. The state-appointed Special Trustee maintains stay and rescind authority as provided by AB 318.
