El Camino College Compton Center Professor to Participate in Minority Outreach Symposium

El Camino College Compton Center Professor Dr. August Hoffman will participate in a panel discussion at a major symposium at California State University, Northridge on Oct. 14.

The event, "Minority Outreach Symposium III: No Longer Waiting for the World to Change," will feature guest speakers such as Los Angeles County Sheriff Lee Baca, the Reverend Chip Murray and Rabbi Steven Jacobs. Dr. Hoffman is a psychology professor at Compton Center.

The event is designed to offer new strategies to engage minority communities in all facets of society by building citywide coalitions; developing ongoing communications and relationships; and strengthening awareness of cultural similarities. The event is free and open to the public. For more information, call 818-713-9737.
