Compton Community College District is Accepting Applications for its Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee

The Compton Community College District (CCCD) is currently accepting applications for consideration in serving on the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee. Applications are available in the District's Office of the CEO or online at http://district.compton.edu/measure_cc_bond/docs/Oversight-Committee-Application.pdf. The application deadline is 12:00 p.m. on Thursday, February 7, 2019.

The CCCD is seeking applicants who represent the following constituencies: a member who is a resident of the District and active in a bona fide taxpayers organization; a member active in a business organization representing the business community located within the District; and members of the community at large who reside in Carson, Paramount or within the District.

To qualify for appointment, a member must meet the criteria listed in one of the above categories. A member cannot be an employee, official, contractor, consultant, or vendor of the Compton Community College District. Elected officials are also disqualified from service on the committee.

As outlined in Education Code Section 15278, the Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee informs the public concerning the District's expenditure of revenues received from the sale of bonds authorized by the voters. More information on the role of the committee, as well as an application, can be found by visiting: http://district.compton.edu/measure_cc_bond/index.asp.

Applications should be submitted to Keith Curry, CEO of the Compton Community College District, at 1111 E. Artesia Boulevard, Compton, CA 90221. For more information, call 310-900-1600, Ext. 2000.
