El Camino College Compton Center Students Transfer to Continue Their Education

El Camino College Compton Center is 'The Place to Be' for students to transfer to a college or university. The results are in for the 2006-07 academic year—nearly 200 students transferred to a 4-year institution to continue their studies.

The top transfer school by far was California State University, Dominguez Hills with California State University, Los Angeles and California State University, Long Beach second and third, respectively. A notable number of students selected private institutions as well as other local colleges. Other top colleges students chose to transfer to include: Charles R. Drew University, California State University, Fullerton; California State Polytechnic University in Pomona; National University; University of California, San Bernardino; University of La Verne and Humbolt State University.

Students can apply and register now for the fall semester, which begins on August 23, at www.compton.edu and click on MyECC. For information about transfer programs, call the Transfer Center at 310.900.1600, Ext. 2760.
