

BUS 17 Personal Finance

In this course students examine the basic economic issues applied to individual and family management, such as financial planning, record keeping, budgeting, managing money, credit, and taxes, are covered. Emphasis is placed on housing and other major expenditures, protecting assets through insurance and other means, investing in stocks, bonds, mutual funds, and real estate, as well as retirement planning.