

BUS 54 Microsoft Office – Integrated Software Applications

Utilizing Microsoft Office in a Windows environment, the student will learn how integrated software allows sharing of data in various applications. Students will be introduced to spreadsheets, databases, and presentation applications and will learn how to integrate them with Word documents and the World Wide Web. Managing email and contacts using personal information management software is also introduced.