Criteria for Determining Valid Challenges:

- Challenge #2 The student must show that the requisite has not been established in accordance with the district policies
- Challenge #3 Refer to Title 5, section 55201(f) – See Title 5 information listed below
- Challenge #4 The student must describe how the requisite is either discriminatory or is being applied in a discriminatory manner. Anecdotal information is acceptable.
- Challenge #1 The student must show proof of knowledge by attaching high school or college transcripts, sample of work completed and letter(s) of recommendation. Consent of instructor or counselor is not considered a valid reason.
- Challenge #5 The student must show that the requisite has caused undue delay in attaining educational goals. For example, the college has not offered the course during a reasonable period of time.

How do I file a valid prerequisite/corequisite/enrollment limitation petition?

The student challenge petition may be obtained from the Admissions and Records office. Take the completed petition and your required supporting documentation to the office of the division in which the challenged course is taught. Examples of documentation are transcripts, samples of previous work, certificates, certifications, and/or letters of recommendation. Attached valid supporting documentation for review and approval.

How long does the petition process take?

A decision should be reached within (5) business days of filing a valid petition.

Title V Regulations (Section 55201f):

A student may challenge any pre-requisite or co-requisite on one or more of the grounds listed below. The student shall bear the initial burden of showing that grounds exist for the challenge. Challenges shall be resolved in a timely manner and, of the challenge is upheld, the student shall be permitted to enroll on the course or program in question. Grounds for challenge are:

1. The pre-requisite or co-requisite has not been established in accordance with the district's process for establishing pre-requisites and co-requisites;
2. The pre-requisite or co-requisite is in violation of this article;
3. The pre-requisite or co-requisite is either unlawfully discriminatory or is being applied in an unlawfully discriminatory manner;
4. The student has the knowledge or ability to succeed in the course or program despite not meeting the pre-requisite or co-requisite;
5. The student will be subject to undue delay in attaining the goal in his or her educational plan because the pre-requisite or co-requisite course has not been made reasonably available; and
6. Such other grounds for challenge as may be established by the district governing board.
