Agenda:

1) Reviewed Minutes from last meeting

2) Review of Follow-up Items from Previous Meeting(s)

a) COVID 19 Updates:

Heather Parnock reported on behalf of the Pandemic Coordinators and reported that College is looking to allow 225 invited student who need to make up lab credits from the Spring 2020 semester to return to the campus on July 6th, 2020. Prior to them returning to campus they would need to be tested for COVID-19 along having their temperatures taken. Currently the Maintenance & Operations Department is finishing their training to clean and disinfect the buildings, this will also the building to be cleaned using a misting disinfecting machine. Maintenance is installing air filters on the bigger buildings for air quality. A plan for return of staff is slated for June 22nd but that is all dependent on testing. Any questions can be sent to the Pandemic Coordinators via email. All faculty must contact their Dean to get approval to come on to campus.

b) Review revised Emergency Operations Plan for Compton College District

The plan is on the College website and has been available since February 2020. The committee members need to know where on the website it is, how to get to it and need to review its contents.

c) COVID 19 Update from CDC

All updates from the CDC are linked to the CEO's messages.

3) Discussion Items

- a) Report from Compton Fire Department
Captain Ivan is currently on deployment and is unavailable to attend the meeting
- b) Report from Compton Unified School District
Chief Wu is on campus for the Compton Unified Graduation but is unavailable to provide an update

4) Pending items

CPR First Aid – AED Training online update

Currently the College is taking bids from outside vendors for this training. This training may be either at the Police Department or online, but that information will be released once the vendor has been chosen.

5) Other

Questions

The committee members present were given a chance to ask questions regarding COVID-19 and those questions were answered by Chief Box, VP Sasser, and Heather Parnock
