Is there anything the co-chairs should know to improve this committee's function or work?

Is there anything the co-chairs should know to improve this committee's function or work?

Concerns have been raised about the districts unilateral decision making without input from the entire committee. Fostering shared governance within a committee is crucial for effective decision making. PBC does not practice shared governance nor takes into consideration the importance of true representation.

The committee needs more faculty and staff to participate.

The committee needs to meet with quorum during summer and winter breaks.

No.

I think committee members rely to much on the co-chairs to do the work

Dr. Michelle Garcia perform here committee-chair duties excellently by staying focused on goals.

Can we use Title V funds to compensate students to increase their participation in this and all committees?

Everything with this committee is great.

The Co-Chairs make a good work in the committee.

N/A

We have large number of participants and doing very well and well organized.

I am still unclear what the committee should focus on at each meeting.

A lot of report outs, not much in the way of action items.

Develop SMART Goals, including assignment of leads, and schedule regular updates/progress reports.

No, it is a 'collaborative function of the decision-making process'.

No

Is there anything else we should know about this committee?

Is there anything else we should know about this committee?

I've observed a pattern of unilateral decision making by the district representation in PBC.

Compensation should be negotiated for faculty members on the committee to attendance meetings when on summer and winter breaks.

We have a regular monthly meeting.

no

N/a

I enjoying working with all the members.

In January 2020 we received an Emergency Training in CPR, AED, and First Aid.

N/A

We need the student voice in this committee

It is very effective and different individuals from different professions are working together for the standing objective and goal.

N/A

We need stable and involved faculty co-chairs.

Very few committee members contribute to the discussions.

Some committee members misuse the committee to air grievances.

Innovation requires a lot to accomplish as we know. If we are to be innovative, all committees would require changes that take a think tank to do, and research from all the committees beyond the institution. Good luck on that.

The IEC is tasked with approving Program Reviews. The number of subcommittees to review Academic, Administrative, and Student Services program reviews is sufficient, but the amount of reading may be high and lead to attrition.
