AGENDA

- I. Call to order
- II. Reports:
 - a. SLO Coordinator: Insights demonstration. Course report updates. Mills: Demonstrated. Gillis: Asked if SLO's can be assessed in multiple assignments.
 - b. Dean of Institutional research: Non-instructional assessment.
 - c. SLO Facilitators. (None)
- III. Discussion Items:
 - a. How to roll out Insights in fall 2026; potentially training at all member division meeting.
Mills: Should we roll out in fall 2026, and begin training towards end of semester?
Williams: Think we should roll out in fall, and reboot assessment at the college. We should be deliberate and try to ensure everything is well-received. We can discuss when a major training will happen. Should update all training materials, and update webpage and provide. Gillis: Are there some faculty that don't use CANVAS? How can we make assessment assessable to them. Does everyone get a CANVAS course shell? Does a class have to be published to record assessments in Insights?
 - b. Next meeting Mills will lead Insights training.

- c. Other Items: Gillis: Can we come up with baseline best practices for handbook, regarding assessment; how many questions should we use to assess SLO's? Can we do a workshop on flex day? Mills: Yes, I will create training manual and plan the workshop if we get permission.
