Statement from the Compton Community College District Board of Trustees: Resolution Regarding Conclusion of Partnership on June 7, 2019 at 11:59 p.m.

The Compton Community College District Board of Trustees approved Resolution No. 10-16-2018A at its October 16, 2018 meeting terminating the agreement dated November 30, 2016. Effective June 7, 2019, at 11:59 p.m., the partnership agreement between the two districts will come to end. At this time, Compton College will operate as an independent college under the authority of the Compton Community College District (CCCD) Board of Trustees.

The Compton Community College District Board of Trustees thanks Compton College faculty and staff for their dedication to student success throughout the partnership, in addition to their years of hard work and ongoing contributions to the process to accreditation. The CCCD Board of Trustees would also like to thank the California Community Colleges Board of Governors and the California Community Colleges Chancellor Eloy Ortiz Oakley for all their assistance and guidance provided to the Compton Community College District over the last twelve years. Their support enabled Compton College to achieve initial accreditation on June 7, 2017 and now, to govern as an independent college under the authority of the Compton Community College District Board of Trustees effective June 7, 2019.

Furthermore, the CCCD Board of Trustees greatly appreciates the El Camino Community College District, and its Board of Trustees for their willingness to serve as a partner with Compton Community College District since August 2006 and thereby enabling Compton College to continue providing educational services to our community, and for their assistance with Compton College achieving initial accreditation. The Board of Trustees is deeply appreciative of the support shown by the Compton Community College District community for Compton College and the students we serve.
